INTRODUCTION

In the course of our education, we are asked many questions. How, what, when, where, and why become an important part of our vocabulary. We must learn to answer these questions, either by study or by reasoning, if we are to succeed.

This, the 1967 HORNET, poses another question, that being: "What is a year?" To some a year (a school year, that is) is merely nine months or thirty-six weeks or 180 days. To some, it is merely a time to be endured, a period of their lives that would be better off ended.

But, to most of us, a year is more than this. A year is people, and places, and things, and happenings, and happiness.

And a year is memories of all these things. These memories are precious to us and will never be forgotten, for in them we find a part of our lives.

The purpose, then, of this 1967 HORNET, is to tell the story of some of these memories and to answer the question: "What is a year at Nashville Community High School?"

DEDICATION

This yearbook is not dedicated to any particular individual. This is not because there is no one deserving of this honor, but rather because there are so many who are. There are many wonderful and accomplished people in this school, but to pick one above the others would be a slight to all.

Rather, then, this book is dedicated, collectively, to all the people, students and teachers alike, who have contributed their talents, abilities, and their selves to help make this year what it was.

Who are these people of whom we speak so highly? Most are anonymous. They are the people who smile at you in the hall, the people who befriend you in some way, the people who explain the inexplicable. They are the people who have in some way contributed to your life during this past year.

It is to you, the students and teachers of N. C. H. S., that this yearbook is dedicated. You are the people who have made this year what it was. Thank you for this year!

THE SALUTATION OF THE DAWN

Anonymous

Listen to the exhortation of the dawn!
Look to this year! For it is the life,
The very life of life
In its brief course lie all the verities
And realities of your existence
The bliss of growth,
The glory of action,
The splendor of beauty
For yesteryear is but a dream,
And next year is only a vision,
But this year well-lived
Makes every Yesteryear a dream of happiness
And every next year a vision of hope
Look well, therefore, to this year!
Such is the salutation of the dawn

RAY A. VANCE / THE OREGON JOURNAL

The Music Department presented the stage version of the Academy Award winning musical, "The Sound of Music," on May 5, 6, and 7, 1966 to standing room only audiences in the auditorium. Outstanding in every detail, it must be recorded as one of the Music Department's greatest accomplishments

The prom guests enter to the gates of Shangri-la by Sa Deh-mo

Prom 1966

Beautifully dressed ladies and their escorts were greeted in the doorway by the sound of a Chinese gong which rung in their honor. Then, on through the bamboo curtains and into Shangri-la, The Land of Golden Dreams. In the midst of this Oriental splendor was a temple, built with a double-tiered pagoda roof. The gentle fragrance of incense emanated from the temple where it burned beneath the brilliant Golden Buddha Chinese lanterns and wind chimes hung throughout and the tinkle of glass added to the romantic air. Shangri-la was an answer to many golden dreams and will always be remembered by those who attended

Miss Linda Auld of Oakdale is crowned the 1966-67 Homecoming Queen by her escort, Abbie Kaser. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Auld. In the court, was the retiring queen, Miss Paulette Laddendecker, escorted by Ricardo Barboza. Also in the royal court were Miss Cathy Chitty and Master Randy Ruggles. Cathy carried an engraved football charm and Randy was crown bearer. The evening's theme, "Some Enchanted Evening," was beautifully accented huge back-drop castle, moat and draw-bridge upon which the queen and her royal court were seated.

More Floats Enter Parade

The sixth annual homecoming parade was held on a Saturday morning and featured both the grade and high school bands. Eight colorful floats were entered from the civic and high school divisions centering around the theme of "Movie Titles." The Legion Auxiliary float entitled "Ship of Fools" won first prize in the civic division and the top-ranking title in the high school went to the senior class for their float entitled "Goldstinger."

In the afternoon, the determined Hornet players played a victorious game against the Pinckneyville Panthers with a final score of 45-6. All will agree that our Hornets really showed their best for us.

The hustling Hornets had some mighty fine highlights, although the final 4-8 record wasn't impressive. Some of the top highlights were featured in the Murphy game, where a fine display of pitching, fielding and hitting brought a 3-1 victory back to Nashville. Another bright spot featured a triple-play executed by the Hornets in a 6-4 victory over Sparta.

The hard work and preparations made each member proud to be a part of the team even though the success in the win columns wasn't so outstanding.

With a nucleus of only two returning lettermen, Coach Dick Ruggles molded a fine Hornet basketball team that will long be remembered for its hustle and desire. The school and team spirit that has developed under Coach Ruggles is a tribute to his own desire for the success of both himself and his team.

A few of the highlights of the 1966-67 basketball season are: winning the Consolation Trophy at the Mater Dei Holiday Tournament, defeating the Pinckneville Panthers at Pinckneville for the first time in 18 years, defeating the Anna-Jonesboro Wildcats for the first time in the history of the school, and then repeating the act in a re-match at Anna, and finishing the season in third place in the SWE Conference standings.

During the week of June 19 - 24 the 1966-67 Hornet Varsity Cheerleaders, who were chosen last spring, attended cheerleading camp at Normal University, where they learned new cheers and stunts. The girls did a very commendable job while at camp, for they received honorable mention in group competition.

New and smart-looking outfits were designed by the cheerleaders and made by the Home Economics Department.

NCHS should be proud of the enthusiasm and pep shown by the cheerleaders in leading the Hornets.

New pompoms used by the varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders, for the first time this season, added much to the total effect of the cheers.

Miss Dude has done an excellent job in leading and training the girls.

MR. DAVID McCLINTOCK

It certainly has been a pleasant experience working with the students of Community High School this year. My congratulations go to the graduating seniors who have completed their secondary education. May they have much success and progress in their future life and may their experiences at Community High School help them obtain their goal in life.

To those students returning next year, may your remaining school years at Community High be pleasant and prepare you for the future.

MIR BOB BRIES, A.S. - P. 10. 00.

MRS. JANET WULF, Secretary

MRS. GLADYS BEEK, Secretary

SHARON PETRY

Our Future Homemakers

You were supposed to eat a diet, not a dish of salt

"Now really Doris, thats too many calories for lunch

The Home Ec Department offers girls instruction in Sewing and Cooking. Included in these courses of study are diet planning, home and family living, and fashion design

Industrial Arts

DEAN WALLER

Drafting I and II and Industrial Arts I, II, and III are taught by Mr. Dean Waller. He secured his B.S. and M.S. Degrees from S.I.U. Furniture making and sports are his particular pastime activities that are not pertaining to the school. Mr. Waller has taught at N.C.H.S. the past five years and is a Junior Class Sponsor this year.

The Industrial Arts Department endeavors to give the students a general background of the applied arts and train in a definite field.

Through the actual use of machines, boys receive training for industrial occupations

And Agriculture Develop Mechanical Skills

It won't start because the pistons aren't connected to the cams, the air filter is lost in the oil filter & there is no gas

Vocational Agriculture combined with Agriculture Mechanics offers a well-rounded training for the students enrolled in those courses. The boys get training in one of the most necessary jobs in the world, the feeding of the multitude. The students do farm work, take field trips, and participate in home projects.

LELAND WELLS

Feeding and raising quails are Leland Wells' hobbies. He enjoys basketball and football. Mr. Wells secured his B.S. Degree at SIU and has been teaching for the past 4 years at NCHS. Mr. Leland Wells is a sponsor of the FFA, and also the Sophomore Class. Vo-Ag and Agriculture Mechanics are the subjects he teaches.

Ag boys solve many mechanical problems that will be useful to them in the future

Foreign Exchange Student

In August, 1966 our school was graced with a handsome young man from Lima, Peru. He is Ricardo Barboza, the NCHS foreign exchange student. During his short stay, Ricardo has participated in most of our school activities and has won the hearts of all

Such a charming person cannot soon be forgotten. Other foreign exchange students will come and go, but Ricardo will always be a part of Nashville, and we hope Nashville will always be a part of him

RICARDO BARBOZA

DR. & MRS. REINHARDT
HOST FAMILY

Coming from the capital city of Peru, Ricardo is the fourth child in a family of six children. He has three older brothers, Carlos, Fernando, and Jorge and two younger sisters, Maria and Martha. Ricardo is 17, a senior, and is interested in becoming a doctor in his adult life. His father is a doctor in Lima.

For his hobbies, Ric is especially interested in swimming, as he swims in the official swimming competitions in Lima. He also likes surfing, volleyball and hiking. He has expressed a great interest in American football and basketball.

Academically, Ricardo is interested in Biology, Physics and Chemistry. He has studied the English language for ten years and also speaks French.

Some qualifications for a host family are

A Heart — large enough to share a portion with another child from another land for a year, and probably forever

A Mind — open to the different life and culture the student will bring with him, open to accepting him for his differences and not for his similarities, and a share of laughter and gaiety to shrink the problems that come up, and to strengthen the bonds of communication

The mother of the host family cannot be employed outside the home unless the hours are not during a time when the student will be at home. Both parents must be over 37 years of age and of American nationality.

One of the questions asked Ric by the annual staff was, if he were homesick. His reply was, "Perhaps I should feel homesick, but the people here treat me so nice that I really feel at home." He has a lively interest in everything about him and is enthusiastic about life and conditions in Nashville.

Ric is the fifth foreign exchange student to attend NCHS under the sponsorship of the Student Council since the program was adopted here. The first was Gert Pettersen of Denmark in 1960; second, Elizabeth Kaeck of Switzerland in 1961; third, Jorma Tommola of Finland in 1962; fourth, Jeannie Peaks of England in 1963

The yearbook staff hopes this year will more memorable with a 1967 Horner

In Appreciation

You give but little when you give of your possessions.
It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.

Kahlil Gibran

It takes a year to produce a HORNET. The work is done by many people who truly give of themselves to help make this the finest yearbook possible. In this space I would like to thank those who truly gave of their time and advice so lavishly and generously. Larry Roemer, the assistant editor, the section editors, and the entire staff for the part they played in putting this book together. Mr. Charles Sisk of Taylor Publishing Company for advising us. And special thanks go to Mr. Elmer Schmale, our excellent photographer.

I would also like to thank the Lawrence House family for letting us use their lovely home for the pictures in the Who's Who section.

Much of yearbook's greatness is due to its advisor. We owe special thanks to Mr. Charles Ruszewski. Without his fine advice and ability, the publication of this yearbook would not have been possible.

I am equally thankful to you, the students and faculty of Nashville Community High School. Without you, there would not have been anything to publish a yearbook about. Thank you for giving us this wonderful year that we might record it here for you.

But now this year of experience has given us a finished product which no longer belongs to the staff. It is yours!

Kathy Sue Heggemeier, Editor

1967 HORNET

Finale

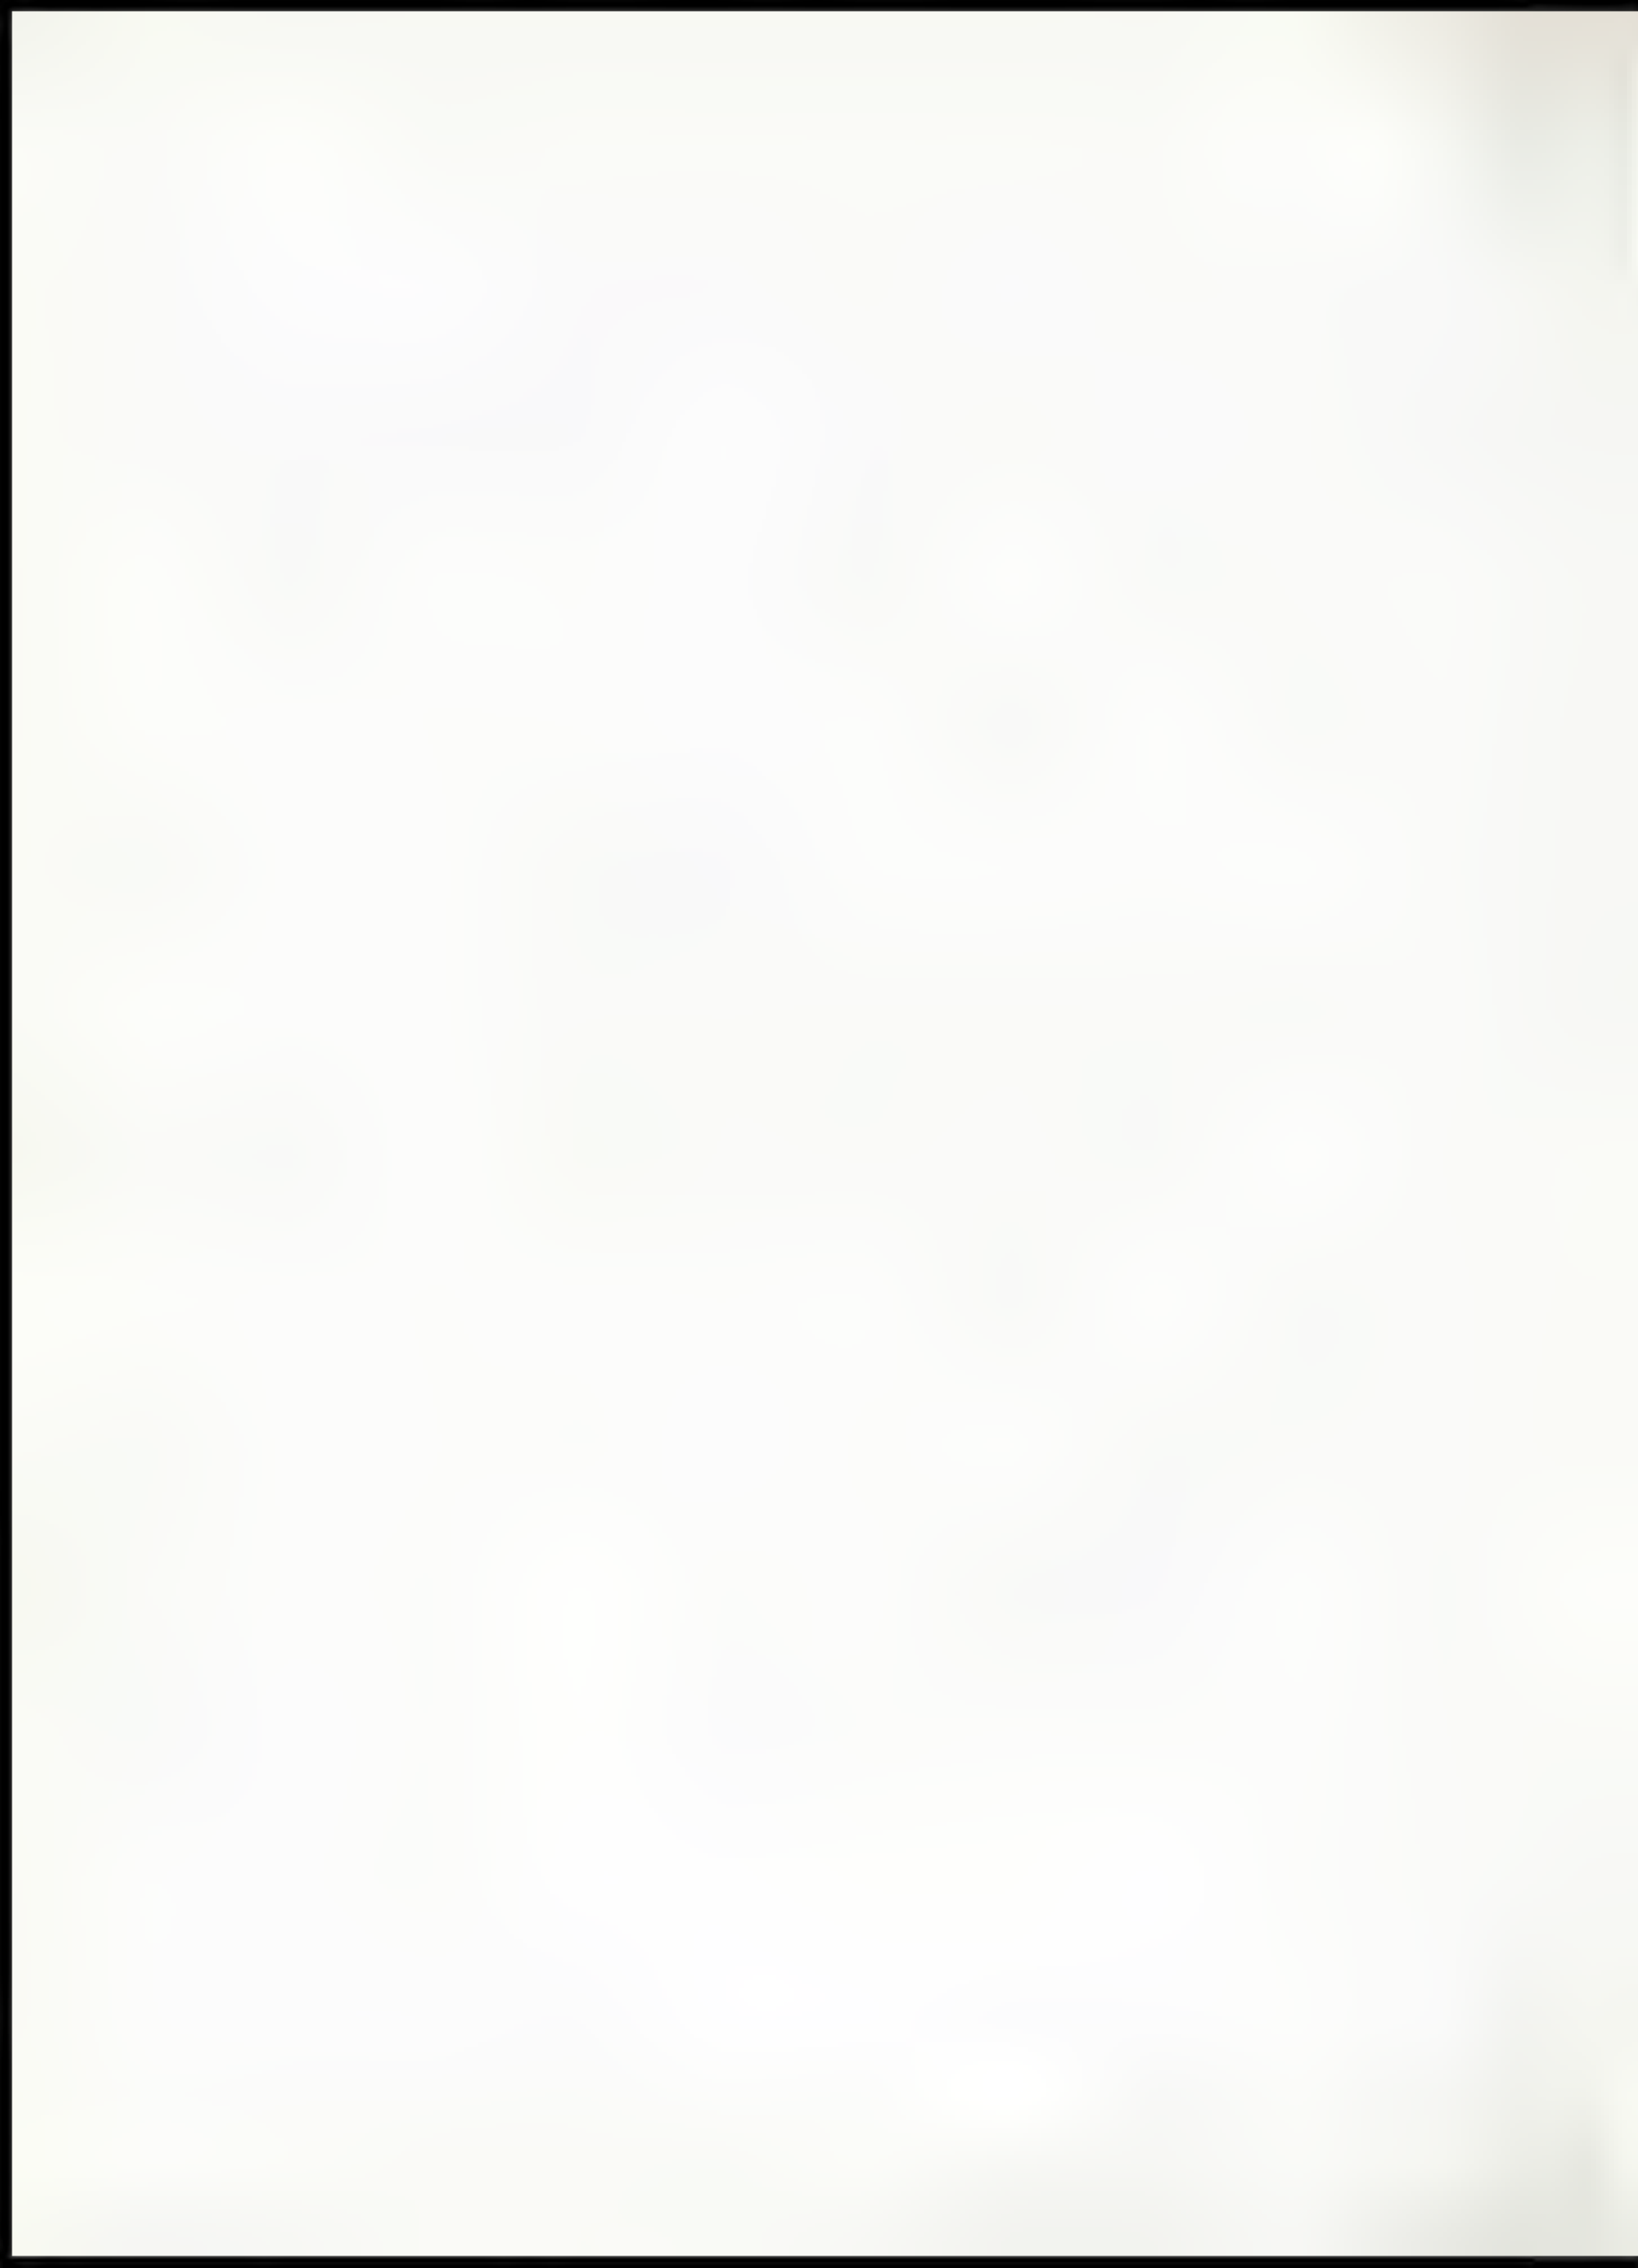

What is it like to end a year? It is sadness . . . saying good-by . . . looking forward to summer . . . cleaning out a locker . . . looking back . . . remembering . . . signing yearbooks . . . taking finals . . . being smothered by heat . . . a sad Senior . . . graduation . . . remembering . . . looking forward . . . dreams . . . memories of: Homecoming . . . classes . . . football . . . dances . . . parties . . . tests . . . Christmas . . . basketball . . . friends . . . assemblies . . . meetings . . . winter . . . "Sweethearts Forever" . . . more classes . . . fun . . . "Sadie Hawkins Day" . . . pep rallies . . . waiting for spring . . . the Prom . . . remembering: teachers . . . passes . . . lockers . . . crowded halls . . . eating together . . . working . . . playing . . . learning . . . growing . . . together . . . becoming one body: "We the people . . ." . . . wishing . . . waiting . . . seeking . . . together . . . all these things, and all the other feelings that cannot be explained . . .

"And in the future it will be pleasant to remember these things . . ."
